

Get on track for a career in Healthcare and Medicine with St Georges University, London.

PLACES STILL AVAILABLE FOR SEPTEMBER 2024.

Unique study experience – St Georges University, London is the only UK university to share its campus with a teaching hospital, integrating students into a professional healthcare environment from day one!

- UK Top 5 for Graduate Prospects – Complete University Guide 2024
- UK's only university to specialize in healthcare and medicine
- Home of popular Channel 4 TV series '24 Hours in A&E'
- Graduate employability at the core of all courses

- Taught by clinicians and scientists active in research and clinical practice
- Opportunities to gain practical experience via placements and professional years in industrial, clinical or other settings
- Innovative teaching methods which blend traditional lectures and seminars with skills workshops, practical sessions and work experience
- Cutting-edge facilities include specialist laboratories, and a Museum of Human Disease and Anatomy suite – gain scientific skills and techniques applicable to the course and future study and employment.
- Industry links include GSK, Pfizer, MSD, HPA Colindale, Novartis (GSK) and Public Health England, as well as St George's Clinical Research Facility and Image Resource Facility.

Courses still accepting late applications until 30 June 2024;

Bachelor

- BSc Biomedical Science
- BSc Clinical Pharmacology Masters
- MSc Applied Biomedical Science
- MRes Biomedical Science
- MSc Clinical Neuroscience Practice
- MSc Genomic Medicine
- MSc Global Health
- MA Medical Ethics, Law and Humanities
- MSc Sports Cardiology

Find out more

